This stately home is ready on the market for new ownership. Step into the historic charm of this 4 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath, traditional two story home, built ca 1820, that features over 2500 square feet. The character of this home is unbelievable. The wide plank wood floors welcome you as you step into the foyer. Find TWO convenient propane fireplaces on the first floor, in both the living room and parlor area. The convenient kitchen with appliances is ready for you with ample room to eat in, or dine in the dining room. First floor half bath off first floor hallway. Upstairs are ample sized bedrooms with lovely character and closets for storage. House boasts two full baths, with one connected as potential en suite. You need to see it for yourself! PLUS the property features an additional 744 square feet of separate private living quarters outside in the courtyard area (or other versatile space) that is complete with two bedrooms, kitchen and bathroom. Enjoy your private backyard oasis under the twinkle lights, with stonework and newly planted grass and fence. This home has the peace and charm you are looking for!
